“ My heart was deeply sadden by the news of my Paula's sudden transition. I came to know Paula through her Las Vegas family years ago. In recent years we have kept in touch. I will miss her and our 3wks-to a month chat visits, catching up & having gut wrenching laughter! We came from 2 different backgrounds, but we had a lot of common ground. We passionately love[d] our sons [Zak & Clayton] and always exchanged stories about them & pictures too; our love for food, culture & exchanging recipes. . .My deepest condolences to Chris, Zak and the Kennedy family and the entire Galbraith family. May God give you comfort and peace during this time and the times ahead.

“ Services were stunning, the priest was awesome and how fitting for the bagpipe player representing the "Kennedy" Clan and of course our "Scotsman" heritage from high school. I will love you forever my beautiful best friend, "through thick and thin" and way past eternity. We all have a new "Angel" hovering above us.
