Burkhart at St. Anthony’s Catholic Church in Long Beach, CA. Our Mother/Grandmother will be remembered for her quick wit, wonderful sense of humor and her incredible knack of remembering every detail of her family’s lives. Grandma was timeless, even at 89. She never seemed old. Her spirit and love of life were a source of strength and inspiration for us all. She was truly the heart and soul of our family. We will miss her smile and that twinkle in those beautiful blue, Irish eyes. She was preceded in death by her husband, Joseph G. Burkhart, on September 3, 1995; sisters, Grace Howe, Lulu Fisher, Opal Chase, and brother, Fred McClancy. Survivors include two sons, Joseph J. Burkhart, and wife, Cheryl; William C. “Bill” Burkhart; daughter, Judy K. Hess, and husband, Larry; brother, James “Ed” McClancy, Santa Ana, CA; nieces and nephews.

She leaves seven grandchildren, Janel, Shawna, Jeff, Chad, Jay, Scott and Hollie and seven great-grandchildren, Ryan, Dean III, GraceAnn, Gretchen, Brett, Brooke and Konnor. We also offer our deep gratitude and love to the many wonderful caretakers from Midland Hospice House. Thank you. You cared for our mother as though she was your own. You are forever in our hearts. “ *Joe, Judy and Bill + Family -
I can't believe I missed the notice of Miss Pauline's passing. I watched for it for months after leaving my employment at Midland. She was the first patient I visited at the House; and she was the last, having outlasted me! She and I shared some special moments and my conversations with each of you are valued memories. Again, I am sorry this is late. May God's grace sustain you and bring you peace through your faith in Him.*
