

Quinton Wayne Joseph Schutter

September 10, 2008

Quinton Wayne Joseph Schutter peacefully went to Jesus' arms shortly after birth, Wednesday, September 10, 2008, due to a rare fetal syndrome, LUTO (lower urinary tract obstruction). Quinton's birthday was celebrated joyfully by family and friends for his 2 1/2 hours of life. Survivors include his parents, Jason and Kristi Schutter; sister, Kayla; grandparents, Ron and JoAnn Schutter, Tim and Connie Land, and Karla Land; great-grandparents, Clayton and Ida Thomas, Bertie Land, Jack and Marilyn Smith, JoAnn Lemberger and Allen and Alice Calhoun. He was preceded in death by his step-grandfather, Gregory Bergstrom; and his great-grandparents, Leroy Joseph Schutter, Velda and Lawrence Quinton Lane, Wayne William Land and Francis Lemberger. "We wish to express our sincere thanks to the Doctors and Staff of Cotton O'Neil Clinic and Stormont-Vail labor and delivery and fetal and maternal wards. Words cannot express our gratitude for your kindness and support that you shared with our family. We also sincerely appreciate the support from Faith Family Life Center as well as our immediate family and friends. " Funeral service will be Monday, 10 a.m., at Skyline Heights Christian Faith Center, 29507 Keene Eskridge Rd, Maple Hill KS with burial following at Dover Cemetery, Dover KS. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating a 12" teddy bear to assist Quinton's Quest, a foundation in his memory to raise awareness for rare fetal syndromes and to provide local family infant loss support. Monetary donations as well as the teddy bears may be sent or brought to Kevin Brennan Family Funeral Home, 2801 SW Urish Rd, Topeka KS 66614.

Checks may be made payable to Quentin's Quest.

“ Jason and Kristi,

I am so deeply sorry for your loss. Try to take comfort in knowing that Greg is up in heaven with Quinton right now rocking him and loving him and telling him how much you and Jason loved him. He is in good hands.

You are in our thoughts and prayers,

James, Stephanie and Peyton Colpitts
