“ The memory of randy I'll never forget was at the lake. His friends were all looking over the lake and a beautiful fire. Randy decided he wanted to go fishing on the dock so bill went with him. All of the rest of use heard a big splash and all we saw were white sneakers inverted upside down. Randy had managed to hook his shorts and thrown himself into the lake. When he came up he was saying bill help me out! The water was only 4 feet so bill says just stand up. We have laughed about that for years and probably will for years to come. We will miss you and your kind heart . Love bill and Suzanne Ebert.
