“ Bob has been my friend since my first day working at Santa Fe. He reached out to a new kid and made me feel like I belonged. Melinda and I were always welcomed in Bob and Eileen's house and had many fine times dinning and swimming. When my son Drew came along Bob always invited him out to swim and play pinball. Once Drew brought a friend out to swim and the friend brought a K State towel with him. Of course Bob was a wonderful host but he gave him a hard time about it. He always invited coworkers kids and neighborhood kids to come out and swim. He was always that kind of guy. We will never forget him. We loved Bob.
