“ I was so saddened to read the obituary of Max, and sorry that I wasn't able to attend either the visitation or service today. Max Sr. & Jr. were two of the first people I met in the early 70's when I moved to Topeka, and have fond memories of knowing them both in the early days when we all had offices in the "Executive Suites" of First National Bank downtown. My deepest sympathy to all the family.

“ Gaither Family. So sorry to hear about Max, SR. He had a fully life and I know all of you must feel pride for the special type of man you shared as a father, grandfather and husband. He was important to me and Garth at a time when we needed his kindness and support. He will always have a special place in my heart.

It is a tough time for all of you and you have my deepest sympathy.

“ To The Gaither Family,

To all of you, please accept my deepest sympathy. I know you have many wonderful memories of Max. Words say very little at a time like this, but knowing people care, maybe helps. I hope so. Charlotte and I were talking about Marie and Max, September 20th. Time slips by so quickly.

Sincerely,

Jackie Campbell Petersen
