“ Bob and Lori-We just wanted to let you know that you are in our prayers daily. I know your Robbie was a special and incredible man, and I am so glad for you that you had him in your life, and had so many good times. We know your life is forever changed, and how lucky that you have so many wonderful memories. Please take care, and know that we care for you.

“ There can be no greater sorrow than losing a child; Robbie was a part of all of us in the "Mopar family" and he will be greatly missed. He was a gift for the all too brief time he had here; may the memory of how much he was loved and admired be a comfort to you. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
