“ I have many memories of Roger from High School and when he was in the Navy. We moved to California and he spent time with my family when he was stationed in San Diego. My sisters have fond memories as well. I was happy for him when he married Rosemary and we became friends. They visited me in Breckenridge, Colorado and whenever I came to Topeka. He was a great man with a fun sense of humor and a twinkle in his eyes. I am happy that he knows The Lord and he will be reunited with loved ones. We are sad here but it's really a great reunion in heaven. Roger you will be missed. My deepest sympathies to the family and friends who spent time with him.

With sympathy,

Chris Power
