“ My husband and I were so shocked when we heard that Ron had passed away. He was loving and caring about people. He lost the love of his life, Janet, to ALS in 2015 and now he is gone far too soon. Our prayers are with his two sons and grandchildren. He is now in Heaven with God and with Janet and with a new body. We will miss him.

I have many happy memories of spending time with Ronny, Billy, and Gary at our farm or theirs, running around, getting dirty, exporing and playing. I am so grateful that he reached out to me in the last few years through Facebook. I got to see him in person 2 years ago as daughter Margo and I were passing through Oklahoma, for the first time in decades. It was so great to catch up and realize what a good and holy man Ron had become! May he and Janet enjoy the peace of God's presence. And God give consolation to all the family left here on Earth.
