“ I met Rosemary at McCrite Plaza years ago. She was a beautiful woman inside and out. I always admired the way she carried herself and at the same time was always ready for a good joke and friendly chat. The world has lost a beautiful soul but her memory brings a smile to my face!

“ I was in Nancy wedding and Rosemary made all the dresses I believe ! She was meticulous in her sewing , not a talent Nancy or I had at the time! She was always a classy lady and almost 50 years later I vividly picture her appearance and class! May your memories help to heal you heart that is missing her🍀
