“ So sad to hear Ruby is no longer with us, God rest her sweet soul. She was a bright ray of sunshine when she would visit staff at St. Matthew’s Parish Office over the years. For many years, she and Dennis sat in the pew behind my husband and me at the 8am Mass, and when we would greet them after Mass, her big smile and bubbly personality always made our day. She will be missed! Many condolences to all her extended family.
Wishing you peace and many blessings at this time of sadness.

“ I was a kid when I first met Ruby dennis was so happy. We grew up next door to dennis and granny (his 1st wife). Then it was dennis and Ruby. She would always give me and my brothers and sisters candy, cold drinks in the summertime. And always had the basement at the 33rd st house open for us when the sirens went off. Ruby was a very nice lady and always had a smile on her face. I remember her letting me take a picture of her in front of her ford crown Victoria. That was a nice car. as a kid that was a fancy car. Haven’t seen her since they moved away from 33rd st. Rip ruby
