

Sammie L. King

September 30, 1931 - July 10, 2025

With profound love and deep respect, we announce the passing of Sammie L. King, who departed this life on July 10, 2025, at the age of 93. He was born on September 30, 1931, Sammie lived a life defined by service, faith, and unwavering dedication to his family and community.

Sammie proudly served 20 years in the United States Air Force, where he embodied honor and discipline. After retiring from the military, he continued his legacy of public service with a 27-year career at the United States Postal Service, earning the admiration of coworkers and neighbors alike.

A man of profound faith, Sammie was a pillar of the church community, serving for many years as First Elder of Highland Crest Seventh Day Adventist Church. His spiritual guidance, steady presence, and compassionate heart left an indelible mark on the congregation he loved so dearly.

Sammie was preceded in death by his loving wife, JoAnn King, his partner in life and faith. They will be laid to rest together, reunited in eternal peace.

Sammie is survived by a devoted family who will carry his legacy forward: his son, Teddy; daughters, Pheeta and Sandy; stepdaughter, Krystal; seven grandchildren, Jordan, Taylor, Sydney, Paige, Theo, Nicholas, and Paris; and four great-grandchildren.

In honoring Sammie's wishes and his humble spirit, the family will hold a private ceremony to celebrate his life and lay him to rest.

Sammie will be remembered for his steady faith, quiet strength, selfless service, and the deep love he had for his family. His life was a living testament to the values he upheld—honor, devotion, and grace.

Well done, good and faithful servant.

You have earned your rest.
