“ I got to watch Shane grow up from a boy and later on got to work with him as a man on the crew. Always a friend with a smile I think few of us will forget. He was always willing to give me help on my computer and was able to teach me a little, well very little, I still get lost. Shane my Friend you will truly be missed, Love You Bro.

“ Where do I begin? We have so many memories and good times together growing up and as adults. Sneaking into mom and dad room on Xmas eve to try to see our presents, chasing down lassie and duke by the park, going over to play on the playground at Topeka Lutheran, me kicking you out of the car after picking you up from school cuz you wouldn't quit arguing with me lol! The ski trip where you made me go down a blue black slope my first time skiing! Our infamous trip to Branson and your car broke down! We had some really great years together and I will never forget them or you little brother, I love you very much , glad to know you are watching down on us from up there with all our other family.

“ Shane you were always such a nice guy. I'll never forget thinking you had the coolest eyes I had ever seen. You were my school family, a brother, a friend. Someone who was funny and nice to me and everyone else you met, even if you were a little out there and crazy sometimes it was never at the expense of others. I hope you've found peace and will save me a place in Heavens cafeteria so we can start a holy food fight together.

To Shane's family, especially his daughter, words can never fully express the right words to comfort this type of loss. I'm so sorry that you'll never see his smile again, or hear him say "I love you", or hear him tell some crazy joke again. But I believe that Shane will always be with you as long as he's kept alive in your hearts and thoughts. I hope you find peace.

“ We have so many memories of you and I growing up and we sure went through a lot together. I will never forget digging a hole nearly 5ft deep to china in dads garden. Or you convincing me to give you my piggy bank bc you were sent from God on a mission trip to collect money for the poor. Or you waking me up on Saturday mornings to go watch cartoons with you (even though I hated animation) bc you were afraid of being downstairs alone. Or playing with the barpho family. Trying to hide a litter of kittens in your closet. Me always trying to tag along with you and your friends. You taught many things growing up, sking being one of them and but probably my favorite thing that i still love to do. "Martineks don't ski greens, you will learn on a blue/black"! I will miss you're off the wall sayings and your infectious laugh! May you find peace now and be with the rest of our family members and God. I love you and will see you again someday. Love you big brother!

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to all of Shane's family and friends. He was a good friend to us and he helped me out of a tight spot once when my computer crashed. Knowing not what to do I asked Shane if he would look at it in his spare time. He took my computer and worked on it and finally got all of my information back. He will be missed
RIP Shane.

“ Met Shane through my husband Jim Seery. When ever Shane would see me he always would stop and talk to me. I remember,when he found out he was going to be a father,he was so excited and happy. He would come and help with our computers when we were new to the computer world. He always came with a smile and would stay awhile and talk to us. I always felt comfortable when I would talk to him. R.I.P
Shane.

“ I met you in first grade. We instantly became brothers. I've never had a closer bond with anyone growing up than I did with you. You are my best friend and I love you. Love you more than my actual brother. It's been one hell of a trip. See you on the other side! ”
