

Sheryl Ann Haug

January 25, 1971 - May 16, 2025

Sheryl Ann Haug, loving wife, mother, and daughter, left our world on Friday, May 16, 2025, in Topeka, Kansas. She was born January 25, 1971, in Topeka to the union of Eric and Sharon Jackson.

Sheryl graduated from Topeka High in 1989. A brilliant artist, she loved the realism of paintings and painted exactly what she saw. Being very shy and reserved all her life, she spoke through her art. Having obtained a bachelor's degree in art from Washburn University. She had a true knack for crafts, home improvement, and gardening.

Sheryl met Richard "Rick" Haug while working at a bank. She was his boss. Starting out slowly with the two of them, they later started dating. They married on October 20, 2001. This marriage brought two amazing children, Samantha Haug on November 10, 2003, and Richard Haug Jr. on November 25, 2005. Sheryl now not only loved being a wife, but she loved being a mother even more. She loved her family above everything and was proud of each and every one of them. She enjoyed relaxing and watching various TV shows with Rick after long workdays, coining it "Our Routine".

Sheryl was loved by all, especially children. She was able to get through to kids of all ages. She ran a daycare out of her home and spent years helping and taking care of children in their most developmental years.

Sheryl is survived by her husband, Rick Haug; son, Richard Haug Jr.; her parents, Eric and Sharon Jackson; sisters, Shelly (Brett) Wiley, Stacy Jackson; and several nieces; nephews; and cousins. Sheryl is preceded in death by her precious daughter, Samantha Haug.

“ I knew Sheryl as my sister's best friend. She was like another sister as those two were always together. They were like "Laverne & Shirley". I remember her infectious giggle as a kid. Sheryl cared about others. She was someone who would lend an ear or shoulder to cry on when a friend needed it most.

She used to drive this small, blue car in late 80's into 90's. Although I am visually challenged, she took me to a big parking lot one time and let me drive. It was scary and hilarious at the same time. We laughed til we about peed our pants. LMAO 🤔 Then we laughed some more telling my sister after she got home from work.

Sheryl loved art! She was talented! I remember a Marilyn Monroe painting that she had gifted my sister and it hung up in her room for years. It was always happy times whenever she was around. She would usually have Rick Springfield playing on cassette in her car or tape player. Everytime his music comes on the 80's station, I think of Sheryl.

She accomplished so much in the life she lived. She was a mother, a family caretaker, a daycare provider, artist and a wonderful child of God. No one can replace her. She was part of my past, most importantly my sister's best friend. Sheryl made my sister happy and that made me happy seeing such a precious friendship.

Sheryl, you will never be forgotten. Your memories live on with all who know and love you. Celebrate your eternal life with your beautiful daughter, Samantha. Peace be with you.

Always,
Kimberly (Rumrill) Draeger
