“ I'm so sorry that you have lost your mother. I enjoyed getting to know her when she moved to Atria and lived across the hall from my mother—and to learn that all of you had lived across the street from my parents at one time. My sincere sympathy

Paula, I am praying for your Mom, who was a very friendly and sweet lady. It is a consolation that she is now pain free and is now so blessed as she is beholding the Beatific Vision! She is now smiling at all her children and grandchildren and siblings for all the love and care you have given her during her earthly life. You and your family will be in my prayers. Rest In Peace Mrs. Burkhardt!

“ Thinking and praying for you guys. I only met Shirley a few times, but I did enjoy her sense of "spice" for life! I will think of her often as we sit on the deck in the patio furniture from her old house. Cheers Grandma Shirley!
