“ It is with touching sympathy that I write this. I don't have a clue how to start for I have no idea how I could cope with loosing a child; it seems unbearable. Loosing a mother and grandmother is not easy either.

May God grant you the strength needed at this time to cope with your loss of one so precious and young. I know you have made many wonderful memories together; may they bring you comfort and peace. Edit out any bad ones and just keep the good ones. It is good to know we have a most precious Lord that fulfills all His promises. We can take to heart the promise of Romans 8:38,39: "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come; nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord" Please know that I care very much.

“ Bob,

I send my deepest sympathies to you and your family. I used to work at the USPFO in Travel many years ago. I didn't know Shirley, but I knew her son, Matt and of course you too, Bob.

My thoughts are with you.

“ Scot and Emily,

Our prayers are with you! I can only imagine the love Shirley had for you and many others. I know she was a special lady jsut from hearing through Sarah about how Emily spoke about her.

May God be with you as you take hold of the fact that your loved one is now with the one that holds the greatest love ever, our Lord and Saviour.

I know you have to grieve, but also you can rejoice in knowing she is in heaven with God. She would want you to hold your head up high and smile as she always loved so shall you.
