“ *Dear Caroline, Girls & Family,
I am so sorry to hear of Silvino's passing. Growing up, I have many fond memories of him as well as his brothers and sisters. It's amazing how time flies. Life could be difficult but there were so many good people in the neighborhood and there were so many happy times. The memories of all of you I hold in my heart. He was nice, compassionate and a kind young man. His love for you and the girls just allowed him to shine as a man and he was always a gentleman in every sense of the word. I know that he was blessed with your love and you all were his heart. My prayers are with all of you.*

God Bless,
