

Sonia Mathy Johnson

April 2, 1953 - May 24, 2015

Sonia Dee (Mathy) Johnson died at Madonna Rehab Hospital in Lincoln, Nebraska on May 24th, 2015, at the age of 62.

Sonia is survived by her mother Peggy Hamman; stepmother Nancy Mathy; two daughters and their spouses, Patrick and Britt (Johnson) Olsen, and Bryce and Megan (Johnson) Wood; two brothers Mitchell Mathy and Brett Mathy; ex-husband Eric Johnson; aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews. Sonia was preceded in death by her father James Mathy.

Sonia was a loving and patient mother, daughter, sister, aunt and coworker. After graduating from Topeka High School (1971) she later completed her LPN degree. She worked as a surgical nurse at Topeka Urology Clinic for 33 years. Sonia was an avid gardener. Her good nature and devotion to family will be remembered and missed by many.

The family will receive friends 5-7 p.m. Thursday at Kevin Brennan Funeral Home, 2801 SW Urish Road, Topeka KS 66614. A private graveside service will be held at Topeka Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to the charity of your choice.

“ To the family of Sonia Mathy, Our hearts were saddened when we heard of the lost of your loved one. I was a class mate of Sonia, and could only remember of the good times that we were able to share at Boswell and Topeka High! Even though we did not stay in touch after High school, she was a friend that you would never forget. She may be gone but, not forgotten! God Be Praised! Bishop Steven J. Crowder.

“ Britt and Megan and family, I am saddened to hear of your mom. Katy and Stephanie can thank her for your years together at the Dance Factory when you were two Britt and we were looking for dance classes together. Her gentle smile and quiet ways (and mischievousness) will be missed. Hugs and prayers to you during this tough journey.
