“ We wish to express our sympathy to the Hubbard family. I had no idea where either Stan or Marv were until I read the newspaper to see the obituary. It is so hard for me to believe that such great people leave this earth so young. We are not in the greatest of health ourselves. Really I am as tough as ever but Bill has not had a very good last year. I am sure, Marv, you probably remember Bill returning from service when we were at Lone Star and I was teaching there. Bill had a herniated disc in his back in 1959 and has been partially paralyzed since but until the last year really had done quite well. He is able to walk with a walker. I am so sorry I had lost contact with both of you boys and would have loved to have met your families as you were students I would have been proud of and your families can be proud of you also. Again our deepest sympathy.

“ To the Hubbard family: Our sincere condolences with the demise of Stanley. My wife, Kay went to 4th grade forward to LHS and I had the privilege of knowing Stan and brother Marvin and their parents. I recall Stan as being a businessman with a vision, a fellow I admired and respected. Again, our condolences.

“ Linda, Grady, Joel, Angela and Marv: My deepest sympathy is sent thru Linda to each of you who are suffering pain and sorrow from the death of a loved "mortal", a family member. I knew Stan, I counted him as a valued friend. I grieve with you over the tangible loss, knowing that the word "loss" is what we who remain here feel. What is loss to us is "gain" to our Heavenly Father as he welcomes Stan's soul into the heavens for the beginning of his life everlasting. One day each of us will again rejoice in reunion with Stan when our time comes. Until that reunion, carry, with precious care, the memories of Stan, for they too are everlasting.
