“ *Tom and family,
We are very thankful to have known Stan. He was a great joy to talk to. We knew the same people. We could really talk about old times. Don and Theresa are very dear to us also. Please know that you and your family are in our prayers. This one's for you.

“ Sophie, Dick and Tom,

So sorry to hear about Stan's passing. I always looked forward to seeing him and getting great advice on life from him when visiting the Trull household. Just like Dave said, I loved him letting us use up the old yard for football and baseball and the driveway for basketball. Even though I rarely won, it was still great. My best to you and your entire family. He definitely was a great and very nice man.

Our prayers are with you,

“ Hey Mo, Rich,

Sorry to hear about your Pop. I have great childhood memories of him, letting us chew up his backyard playing football, taking us camping up north to Morrill?, drinking his Black Label beer watching the ballgames on TV. Stan was a great guy.
