“ I am sorry about your loss of Steve. My dad and I worked for him at SW Bowl for quite a few years. He was a good man. It was obvious that he loved his girls and would light up when they were with him. I will be praying for your peace and comfort.

“ Mary, I read this to my Mom and we are both so sorry for your loss. I am glad I had the opportunity to meet Steve and help him with his VA stuff. Hearing his stories and researching his unit's history, I know the trials he faced. He was an honorable man.
