“ *Mary, Barbie Ann, Sophie, Regina and Theresa:
I am sorry to hear of Susie's death. I wish that I could be there with you. Susie and you all were an important part of our early life. I will never forget Stadler's Grocery and delivering groceries in the Model A. We liked to pay our monthly account bill because you would treat us with candy. I still have a book that Susie gave me about 1950 called "American Locomotives" which has wonderful pictures of old steam engines. Susie was a good influence on all of us and she will be rewarded in heaven for that. I last saw Susie in Topeka about 10 years ago when we visited at the house on Twiss. I think she got to meet both of my sons, Eddie and Dusty. It was a memorable meeting. I will always have good and happy memories of you all.*
