“ Terry was a joy and inspiration each moment I spent with her; even 3 days before she breathed her last earthly breath she was asking how my family was doing. Equally, she was always a wonderful and uplifting participant in the Transitions group, encouraging others and setting a positive example in facing life's changes with assurance. Certainly, I could never miss her as much as her family and friends who have had the privilege of being touched by her love and life to a depth I could never know but I will miss my "Terry moments" when I am at Legend. As she breathed her last breath here, she inhaled the eternal love of God fashioned for her through His grace. - Terry Frizzell, Heartland Hospice & Presbyterian Manor
