“ I had the pleasure of meeting Tom and working with him at the Department of Revenue. Once you get through his tough exterior you found a very kind and gentle soul. He also had a great sense of humor and was a very intelligent person. Im so sorry for the families loss. I know that he will be missed greatly at Revenue and we appreciate his dedication and service. Prayers to the family.

I first met Tom in 1968 while working at Famous Brands then connected up much later at the Department of Revenue. Tom and I worked together at Devlin's Liquor for a while also. Rest in peace Tom.
