“ When Tuny and Lloyd lived in Caldwell, Idaho, Tuny invited us to dinner. Lloyd had caught a mess of catfish and Tuny fried them to perfection. I can almost taste them now. Kermit and his wife were there also and we had a wonderful visit. I do not ever remember her when we would go to Topeka to visit but I was quite a bit younger. Her Dad was my mother's favorite cousin and their being double cousins made them even closer. Grandpa Palmer and his brother, Uncle Bert, married sisters - my grandmother, Maggie, and her sister, my great Aunt Addy.

Now she is with them all again and she makes the stars shine a little brighter. Rest in peace, my dear cousin...

“ Have not seen Tuny since I was a child, but did keep up with her through Glenn Palmer her brother. So many of our family tree are gone. I am glad she and Bert had their golden years together. A beautiful lady from a beautiful family. RIP Tuny.
