“ Kevon and Denise,

I was indeed saddened to learn from this morning's paper of Tyler's death. You may remember that Tyler studied piano with me several years ago, first at our 33rd street address and then on Stonybrook.

"The million dollar smile" was so aptly mentioned. Tyler's love of music, reading, video games, and chess all rang a bell with me, for in my association with him for several years in piano lessons he mentioned them all.

I will not be able to visit tonight at Brennan's but I do plan to be at the Memorial Service.

May God's ever present Grace and comfort sustain you.

*Sincerely, Enid Hickman
(4039 SW Stonybrook Dr.)*

“ When we think of Tyler we remember him at Fairlawn Mall at the cruise night admiring the cars.

So sorry for your loss. Your family is in our prayers.
