“ Phil, Lori & Family,

WHAT A BLESSING your mother was to me everyday I saw her at Presbyterian Manor? She always had a smile, an outreached hand to take mine and a warm hug along with her soul-deep, head-nodding affirmations. By the time I came to know her, she could not speak a word but she spoke volumes through being "Vi!" Thank you, Thank her and Thank God for the joy of having been just a small portion of her last years but a BIG recipient of her grace and joy from the Lord.

*Prayers and blessings,
Terry Frizzell, Former Manor Chaplain*

“ It has only been three days, but I already miss you more than you know. We have been through so much together, I just hope you know what an amazing person (mom) you are. Even when times were tough you always kept your faith, which is something I need to get back, I love you so much mom, but I have to be strong and know that you are finally able to walk and talk again, My utmost love and respect for you. Love and miss you tons.
