“ Hi there-Although we have never met personally, if ever you would like to talk, please drop me a line. My husband and I lost our son Noah, after he put up a brave struggle for 20 days. We thank God everyday, that we had him, no matter how short the time was, it was stil better than not knowing our precious, gift from God at all. I am sure you feel the same way about your sweet Zane. Remember, he is not gone, just gone on ahead. Hopefully I will meet you sometime, our little Noah, is buried in the same row as your Zane. Please take care of you, and pray for strength. One of my favorite sayings is "God does not give us what we can handle, he helps us handle what we are given." My other favorite is "We do not remember days...We remember moments." May beautiful memories of Zane help you remember. Much love, and many blessings! Vicky Aker

“ Dear Tanya and Zach, How can I just say I'm sorry. You have such and empty place in your hearts and your home. I do know the pain you have Tanya I lost a little boy also. It will get easier for you to get through the days but your heart will always have a crack in it. Each holiday and birthday will bring you back to your lose. Lean on each other for comfort and support. If there is ANYTHING I can do for you please let me. Tanya you are a special person and I'm so glad I meet you.

“ To the parents of this little child.

I do not know you personally but I had to say to you that I am sorry you had to lose your baby. I know it hurts very deeply. Jehovah God longs to re-unite parents with their children in the resurrection. He has given the power to Jesus to do this. We know that it will be very soon now when the resurrection of loved ones will take place into a paradise earth. The hope of the resurrection brings some comfort when we lose our loved ones in death. Very sincerely, Patty And Bud Coast

“ Tanya & Zach- We want to let you know how deeply sorry we are to hear about your precious son Zane. No words can make the pain go away, but only try to comfort you. Even though Zane slipped from your arms, he slipped right into Jesus' arms. He is in good hands. Remember to look to God for your source of strength. He knows what you need at every moment. We'll be praying for you in your time of healing. Love, Erik, Cristina & Isaias Nava
