"Z" was a valued member of the home care team, since home care began at St. Francis. Her presence will be sorely missed. Our prayers will continue to go up for the host of family and friends who mourn her passing.

Jerry, Kayla, Lee and family, I am so sorry for your loss. After working with Z for 25 yrs, I felt that in many ways we grew up together as we raised our children and shared stories of family, achievements, advise or just a listening ear. She was the first person in the office I greeted every morning, as well as share a moment of "chit chat" with before the work day began. She was always there with a smile on her face. She will always be in my heart as a very dear person that I was privileged to know. You will be in my thoughts and prayers.
